WHO is a MISSIONARY?

EVERY follower of Jesus
is commanded by Jesus
to make disciples
of ALL nations
and teach them all that God has commanded us according to Matthew 28:19-20.

EVERY follower of Jesus
is commanded by Jesus
to be a witness locally, nationally, and internationally according to Acts 1:8.

While every follower of Jesus is not a missionary,
EVERY follower of Jesus
is expected to partner in the missionary task (see page 8).

WHAT is the MISSIONARY TASK?

In light of the full testimony of Scripture, we believe that the core missionary task has six components: entry, evangelism, disciple-making, healthy church formation, leadership development, and strategically planned exit. Because prayer is central to our strategy, it is not a separate component of the task, but rather is an essential element in every part. Prayer must permeate every aspect of the missionary task.

THE MISSIONARY TASK

From

WHERE

do Southern Baptist missionaries come?

The local church seeks to reach the lost locally, nationally, and internationally and disciple them.

Individuals, identified within the local congregation, are called by God to use biblical methods for disciple-making and strengthening that result in church planting.

Missionaries come from the local church.

Missionaries are called by God and sent out on behalf of their local church, often in cooperation with their local Baptist association, the Georgia Baptist Mission Board, the North American Mission Board or the International Mission Board to use biblical methods for disciple-making and strengthening that result in church planting.

Missionaries will typically continue their training at a seminary, a school designed to equip spiritual leaders.

WHERE do
Southern Baptist
missionaries go?

Missionaries go...

to the place or people group

where God calls and leads them to go, including to unreached people and underserved places,
are sent by their local church,
and use biblical methods for making spiritually mature disciples who reproduce and results in church planting.

Missionaries go...

to make disciples and work to gather the disciples for worship, discipleship, healthy church formation, and leadership development while equipping them to go and make disciple-makers among other people groups and locations as God leads.

HOW do
Southern Baptists fund missions and ministries?
